FEDERAL RETIREMENT THRIFT INVESTMENT BOARD UNVEILS UPDATED WEBSITE

Washington, D.C. -- The Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board (FRTIB) announces the launch of a redesigned Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) website, tsp.gov. The refreshed look and updated architecture make it easier for participants to find the information they need, whether they are preparing their first withdrawal request, learning more about TSP funds, or looking for the most up-to-date publications. Topics have been grouped to allow for an easier and more intuitive use of tsp.gov.

The FRTIB developed the new website with the invaluable assistance of TSP participants who contributed to user testing and interviews during its development. After the beta site was launched in February, the FRTIB continued to make improvements to the redesigned website based on the more than 1,500 comments received from interested participants.

The TSP is a retirement savings plan for Federal employees; it is similar to the 401(k) plans offered by many private employers. As of June 2020, TSP assets totaled approximately $622 billion, and retirement savings accounts were being maintained for more than 6.0 million TSP participants. Participants include Federal civilian employees in all branches of Government, employees of the U.S. Postal Service, and members of the uniformed services. Additional information can be found at www.tsp.gov.
